

When calculating the tuition fees, non-EEA students who fall into one of the rights of residence categories determined by the Higher Education Code (article II.215) are given the same rights as people of Belgian nationality. Within these categories, the equivalence of rights for family members of EEA citizens, as described in Art.II.215.8°, is interpreted as equivalence for people married to or legally cohabitating with EEA citizens, as well as first-degree relatives (excluding siblings).

When calculating the tuition fees, non-EEA students with the candidate refugee status in Belgium are given the same rights as people of Belgian nationality.
